

ONE CENT--THE DAY BOOK--ONE CENT

ZEPPELIN BOMBARDS CITY OF BUCHAREST AGAIN

Berlin. — German Zeppelin has again bombarded fortified city of Bucharest, capital of Rumania.

Paris. — Allied troops have won victories on practically every sector of the Macedonian front. British troops continuing successes on east bank of river Struma. Made successful attack on Janina. French captured trench on west bank of Struma.

Athens. — 30,000 insurgents now control the island of Crete, following occupation of Canea and Heracleion. Only 11 of King Constantine's Cretan body guard remained loyal, rest surrendering to insurgents without a struggle.

Capture of Canea, capital of Crete, by revolutionary force accomplished without bloodshed.

London. — With three of Germany's biggest and latest types of Zeppelins brought down on English soil, Britons today believed London now secure against air raids.

Anti-aircraft guns scored hits on two big airships which were destroyed Saturday night. Latest estimate of casualties put killed in raid at 30; 110 injured.

Rome. — Reinforced by Russian detachments, Rumanians have halted attempted Teutonic invasion on their northwestern frontier.

Russian troops now fighting in Southern Transylvania for first time since Rumania declared war. Some Russian detachments even reported as far west as Orsova.

Allies suffered reverse in fighting east of Vardar in Macedonia. Fierce battle going on south of Kenall, where Serbians are attacking strong systems of Bulgarian defenses, barring way to Monastir.

Rome. — Italian troops have cut Trieste water supply.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Co-operative mass meeting to-night, 8. W. F. Vedder and others will speak on "Co-operation" for the Chicago Co-operative ass'n, 162 N. Dearborn, rooms 306-310. Readers Day Book invited.

Prof. G. Ayers Lafayette will speak on "Precedents" at Halsted and Englewood, Monday night.

Watchmakers' union, local 15212, to meet and accept new candidates Tues., Sept. 26, 180 W. Washington, Room 401, 8 p. m. By-laws to be voted on.

General meeting of all departments Miscellaneous Employes' ass'n, Tues. night, Sept. 26, 234 W. Randolph st. Hotel and club bell boys, also check-room boys invited. Come and get your October union button.

Open meeting of grocery clerks and butchers Tues. night, at Midway hall, 6344 Cottage Grove, to discuss Saturday night work and shorter hours.

COUNTY PROSECUTOR HELD IN MURDER OF HIS WIFE

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 25. — After conducting preliminary examination into wife's murder, producing threats against his life as a motive, and announcing shortly before coroner's verdict was returned that he had unearthed a clew which he believed would lead to apprehension of murderer, County Prosecutor Oscar McDaniels today is held here, charged with murder of his helpmate.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair and warmer tonight; Tuesday increasing cloudiness with showers by night; south southwest winds becoming fresh tonight. Temperature Sunday: High, 65; low, 55.